- General Paulus is now living on Koenigsbruecker Strasse 70, in the Kirchbach Villa of former Saxon Prime Minister Seydewitz, in Dresden North.
- Paulus is said to have fully accepted the Communist ideology and believes that the West has a ring of troops stationed along the East German borders for aggressive purposes. He draws a small pension, has free living quarters, and allegedly is uncertain as to his own role in the future. [REDACTED]
- Paulus is known to be in close contact [REDACTED] with Colonel Wilhelm Adam, Paulus' former ordnance officer and present chairman of the Dresden district of the NDP who is also the commander of the VP officers' school in Dresden. Supposedly, Paulus has suggested to the Soviets that Adam be promoted to general.
